The Correspondence.

We noticed in the Democrat of Monday the nior editor. Below we publish the correspondence. In this connection it may not be improper fer from the baseless condition to which she has for us to announce that, in a day or two, Mr. Harney will be able to resume the duties of his position as senior editor of the Democrat :

LETTER OF PRESENTATION.

To J. H Harney: SIR: A number of the farmers of Jefferson the necessity of reform in the city government. county, Ky., wish to express to you their approval of the bold manner in which you have maintained the true interests of the city of Louisville, and the ability which you have displayed in opposing the evil practices of a party which has brought discredit upon the city, and which, if successful ever for corrupt purposes he may urge to the conthroughout the country, would bring discredit upon the whole land

Identified as we are with the city of Louisville we feel that her interest is ours, and that our prosperity is in a great measure dependent upon hers. So that whilst we have heretofore felt great to themselves will inevitably stamp disgrace on pride and satisfaction in her prosperity, we now feel much sorrow for her adversity. This adversity is plainly to be seen, and has been produced by making the true interests of the city subservient to, and dependent upon, the interests of a political party. Party dictation is the law of the city, and there can be no real prosperity, as there upon the myam dons of the mob organ; another can be no real security to person or property, until | war call for "fire and steel," with which to destroy this state of things be entirely changed. THE REPLY.

GENTLEMEN: For this second testimonial, presented me by my fellow-citizens, accept my warmest thanks; but I shall not undertake to express my apprecia ion of the gift, and the flattering terms in which it is conveyed. Well as I am aware that this notice of my efforts is beyond my desserse, I am nevertheless proud to see that the cause I advocate, and the means of promoting it, meets the cordial approbation of the Anti-Know-Nothings of Jefferson county. There was nothing on one side involving personal dishonor in the estimation of the other; nothing to degrade and disfranchise whole classes of our citizens. Men voluntarily tool their places under different standards, and openly proclaimed and advocated what they believed. Secret combinations, suspicious of ghostly perils -oath-bound conspiracies against whole classes of citizens of the United States were unknown. Were we not a prosperous and happy people under the institutions and the policy our fathers established? Were we not the world's admiration for our freedom and our matchless progress in all that constitutes the greatness of a people? Where have been the evils about which so much has been said of late by the emissaries of a new political creed? They did not exist, and they do not now under the law of 1855, by which the State take exist. They are the pure inventions of unscrapulous men who aspire to office and place, and June next, at the expiration of the present lease expect to succeed by appeals to the apprehensions of the ignorant, the prejudices of race, and the bigotry of religious sects. THEATER. - We were pleased to see so large a audience at the Theatre last night. The play, 'Ogarita'' did not go off as well as it might have ione-the performers not all being up in their parts. Miss Mary Provost and Mr. Hanley, however, were excellent in their parts. The after piece "Loan of a Lover," went off in most capital style. Miss Mary, as Gertrude, played with a charming, beautiful artlessness, that won the hearts of all present : she sung trio in most excellent voice. There is a quality in her voice which more than compensates for lack of power-it is a telling pathos and melody. Mr. Bowers made very pleasing impression.

To night Miss Mary will appear in two of her best characters, "The Female Gambler" and "The Morning Call." Of course she will have a crowd ed house. Secure your seats early this morning.

peer from a Turner. Daniel Webster Clark, a boy, deposed that the boy Jackson was set upon by Turners, who struck him with porter bottles, or anything they could get hold of. Some of the javenile urners had said he had taken away their beer. Jackson run down the hill and the Turners ran after him. Jackson turned, and said he could whip any boy of his size. He was then struck on the head with slung shots and kicked. He then went off. Don't know who struck the first blow-aid not see Jackson strike the Turner boys but once He waited after this, with about ten furners to come down the hill, saying they would stone them as they came. Jack on had drank right smart of beer. He was struck on the leg during the affray and lamed. The Turners treat ed the boys all very well except such as did not behave.

I. N. Lowry, of the Covington Council, deposed that he went to see what he could at the Turner Festival. He was invited to take beer, and did so A fuss broke out in the south part of the ground about a boy. He thought they were going to kill him. A Covington man, not a Turner, drew a knife, and witness told him to put it up. Witness also addressed the Turners, who were much exci-

Witness guaranteed to the Turners that there should be no fuss to interrupt them; they said they wanted no fuss; witness told them that if they disobeyed him and made any fuss, they should no cross the river, witness, as well as everybody else was much excited; the Turners listened to him af ter he had quieted the Covington boys; wi ness followed the procession after it had left the followed the procession after it had left the grounds; at Fourth street; saw it stopped; saw one of them strike another on the bead with an one of them strike another on the bead with an one of the strike another on the bead with a man run iron rod, and saw another level a rifle; a man ru and was pursued some distance by members of the Cross-examined-At the intersection of Fourt and Madison, saw a man from the crowd strike a the Turners; heard a rope called for when the furners were whipping the boy on the hill; did not know for what purpose they wanted it, whether for athletic (x reises or not; some of the men were suddled; have seen people at pic-nics often as much fuddled, but they were more discreet.

Wm. Clark, a boy, deposed that he saw a Turner bit Mr. Harvey on the head with a horn; it was on Fourth street; a horn was blown when Harve was knocked down, and they drew their sabres and ax d their bayonets. Joseph Hennedy saw the affray with Butts bree or four shots were fired; Batts had snappe his pistol, but it did not go off; saw a man with spectacles extend his hand and fire; saw Butts fall; don't know if he would recognize the man it he should see him; witness ran to Walnut Stree Ferry; described the man who had shot Butts, an told them not to let him cross over; the first tha witness saw of the affray was the firing, and afte ertain that at least three shots were fired. Wm. Boggs - Saw the attack on Butts, did no see any one strike him until after Butts had discharged his pistol. It was when they attempte take a prisoner from him that he drew his pis Mr. C. H. Gedge-Saw Mr. Harvey go into the growd to arrest a man for beating the boy. Directly he heard the cap of a piscol explode, and then heard the firing; a bil struck close to where he was standing. Stood a little while, and saw every one that could reach Harvey striking as him. Saw a large man striking at Harvey, and saw no more. Could not swear positively that it was Harvey whom they were attacking, becaus his back was turned, but believe it to have been him. The Turners came into the city in platoons ten deep, and, as witness believed, prepared for

John T. Butts deposed that he heard that hi brother was in an affray, and went to seek him Saw Harvey fall, and heard him exclaim, "They have killed me." Identify one man, who is now in jail, as having struck at me with a sword.
(Witness was here requested to look around among the defendants and see if he could recognize any one else.) He did so, and picked out beries, left in confusion, leaving in their camp the results of their previous plunder, to-wit: a number of nerses and mules, some of which were recognized him by his cravat, (a common black one with round white spots.) of nerses and mutes, some of which were recognized as the property of Mr. Hill, and delivered to his brother at this post, as well as sundry papers of great importance, a draft for £1,000 sterling, and many articles of clothing, some of which were recognized as the property of Mr. Hill, and others was a sabre. He might have had both. He was at the place where I first saw Mr. Harvey, when the control of the propersion. saw the procession they were marching by sections—saw among others, two men striking at Mr. Harvey with their muskets clubbed. Wm. Robinson said he could not identify any one pres-ing been concerned in the affray, but the had the man in jail who shot Butts.

ond Cavalry has done in the incipiency of its career in performing the important service which the defense and for the Commonwealth, and it was State of Texas and the General has so long deat length decided that they should be held for on the bonds of the entire party, one hundred and six in number, and soon after they formed in pro cession, marched down to the ferry landing and orossed over to this side, where they were welcom-ed with cheers by their German friends. Meyers, the one who was identified by Butts, remained in custody, and, together with three others who are identified and are imprisoned, will have a separate somewhat dying away, and the citizens generally appear willing to let the law take its course

Officer Butts is considered as being dangerously wounded. Officer Harvey's physician thinks it impossible for him to recover, and yeaterday no one, not even his wife, was permitted to see him.

We learn that the boy Jackson is not injured.
The report of his being badly teaten and out was doubtless the cause of the great excitement and subsequent bloodsbed.

OLD LINE WHIGGERY .- According to a previous OLD LINE WHIGGERY.—According to a previous announcement, Mr. James B. Clay on yesterday made a stirring appeal to the old line Whigs to rally to the call of the 12th April Convention, at this place. Mr. Clay spoke about one hour to a crowded and attentive house, and by his courteous manner, and the disinterested patriotism of his sentiments, secured the good will of all. We cannot say how many old liners were present, but he was often applauded with enthusiasm. We may give the substance of his remarks in our next. He concluded by calling a convention of the old line Whigs of the county, on the 15th inst., to appoint delegates to the Louisville convention, of the 4th of July next,—Lexington Statesman, 13th.

LEX Talions.—The young ladies of Lagro, Ind., having adopted a resolution in a temperance meeting not to receive the addresses of any young man addicted to his cup, the young geatlemen publish a pledge, signed with their proper names, stating that they will not keep the company of young women who are members of this society!

BARREN RUN, Lane Co., Ky., May 7, 1856. Messrs. Editors: We the undersigned having seen members of the so called American party from its first introduction in this section of the county, and fully understanding the objects and sims of the same, have become disgusted with it, and believing that it was conceived and concocted by the rile Apolitionists of the North, for the purpose of dividing and weakening the pro-slavery strength of the South, feel it to be our duty to renounce it, and cannot u on the side of the Constitution of our common country, and religious liberty, we therefore, take this method of leaving the order of signs and grips, and say to the world that we are once more treemen, and shall batttle for its rights

An inquest was held yesterday by Dr Foster, Coroner of Campbell county, Ky., at the pic-nic ground opposite the mouth of the Little Miami, on the body of a man found floating in the ohio river. From papers on the body, is seems his name was Pagnam. About $110 in gold were found in his pockets, and a ticket showing that he had paid a deck passage on the steamer City of Wheeling, on the 28th of April, 1856. A silver watch and some change were also found on his person. The skull was broken on the right temple, but it was impossible to tell whether it had been done before or after death, owing to the decomposed state of the corpse. The Jury gave as their verdict that "the deceased came to his death by some means unknown to them.

FOR NICARAGUA. - The Minna Schiffer, with her gallant band, started down the river last evening, en route for the new theatre of civilization and progress. In number about 200, their departur was witnessed by hundreds of their friends an witnessed by hundreds of their friends and well-wishers, and cheered with a heartiness that could not but warm in their hearts the hopeful resolution with which they have separated from all else dear to them in life. We wish them good all else dear to them in life. We wish them good speed, with the full assurance that they will do their duty to themselves and their country, and a firm trust that the now ungrateful republic will not much longer refuse them its just countenance and support.—New Orleans Picayune, May 8.

A PERFUMED BREATH.—What lady or gentle man would remain under the curse of a disagreeable breath, when, by using the "Balm of a Thousand Flowers" as a dentifrice would not only render it sweet but, leave the teeth white as alabaster? Many persons do not know their breath is bad, and the subject is so delicate their friends will never mention it. Pour a single drop of the "Balm" on your tooth-brush and wash the teeth night and morning. A fifty cent bottle will last a year. A BEAUTIFUL COMPLEXION may easily be acquired by using the "Balm of a Thousand Flowers." It will remove tan, pimples, and freckles, from the skin, leaving it of a soft and reseate hue. Wet a towel, pour on two or three drops, and wash the face night and morning. SHAVING MADE EAST .- Wet your shaving brush in either warm or cold water, pour on two or three drops of "Balm of a Thousand Flowers," rub the heard well, and it will make a beautiful soft lather, much facilitating the operation shaving. MESSRS. O. R. BAKER & CO.--The Pear Sirs: I have always had objections to have my name in any way attached to a Patent Medicine; but when I think (as I now have ever reason to beieve) it has saved my life. I am induced by a sensor duty to those smitcted, as I have been, to make my case known, and recommend your Baisam as a medicine that can be relied on a hoult ayear since I was attacked with Lung Fever, which let my lungs much iessed; my coust was distressing, attended with giving me permanent relief or hen-jit-my lungs now ulcerate., and I raised large quantities of matter from them. The DOCTOR TOLD MY FRURNDS THAT I MUST DE MY FOR THE LUNGS, a d I commence taking it. At first it sickened me, but after taking more, I found it went to the spot-to the very seat of my disease. I began to raise with more ease, and could feel daily that my langs were heating, until by the use of four bottles, I was restored to better heath than I had enjoyed tor years. I uchieve that if I had use! Dr Haf-Balsan when I was first sutacked, it would have save; me a vast deal of suffering. All I can say to others try it, and I think you will be benefited if your disease is on your lungs.

Your, respect ully.

To the Public

OF THE UNITED STATES! An advertisement of Mr. UDOLPHO WOLFE, lately published, as I suppose, for the protection of his Schiedam Schnapps against counterfeiters, has come under my observation; and, being engaged in the manufacure of Schiedam Schnapps, were I to let it pass without notice, I might be considered among those he denominates "Pirates and Venders of Poison." But the immense patronage and success that has attended the sale of the article manufactured by me, and the opinion of competent judges as to its qualities as a beverage and its medicinal virtues, precludes the possibility of the idea that I am included among those he designs to impugn. No doubt he feels aggrieved at the depreciation of the sale of his Schnapps, which is manifest to all ince mine has been brought into competition with his Not only have I succeeded in competing with him quality, but the constant and increasing demand for my article will soon satisfy him that his caution to the citizens of the "Southern and Western States" will avail him nothing as far as I am concerned. The haracter of my Schie lam Schnapps is too well estab ished in those States to be injured by any such invidi us publication. The motive of his advertisement is byious to every one, and feeling well satisfied that al such missiles thrown at me by him will fall harmless a

SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK, SS.

Be it remembered, That on the twenty-eighth day of December, Anno Domini 1854, Barnard L. Simpson, of the said instrict/hath deposited in this office the title of a print or label, the title of which is in the words following, to-wit: "Barnard L. Simpson's Aromatic Schiedam Juniper Schnapps, a superior Tonic Anti-Dyspeptic Invigorating Cordial," the right whereof he claims as author and proprietor, in conformity with an act of Dongress, entitled "An act to amend the several act respecting copy rights."

GEU. W. MORTON, Clerk of the Southern District of New York.

The word Schiedam Schnapps is derived from a town

my feet, I will here, for the satisfaction of the public

The word Schiedam Schnapps is derived from a town in Holland, called "Shiedam," which is celebrated as a place of extensive juniper plantations and numerous "Schnapps" for centuries.

Does it not appear, now, poor and deceitful for U.W. to attempt to make a wrong and untrue impression on the public by asserting that the name "Schiedam Schnapps" belongs exclusively to his article, and that all others are counterfeits and impositions?

U. W. has no monopoly, and no more right for the sole importation of Schiedam Schnapps than anybody else, and he may rest assured that I shall be the last to submit to his unjustifiable pretensions. The great and increasing demand for my Genuin Schiedam Schnapps in Louisville, and throughout Ken tucky, has induced me to appoint Messrs. Clark & Johnson, Wholesale Druggists, No. 509 Main street, as my agents for supplying the trade at my regular prices and they will always be furnished with a full stock o ooth quarts and pints, safely packed, in good shipping

I take pleasure on this occasion to tender my sincer manks to the public in general, and to my friends in particular, for the kind liberality with which they have patronized me from my commencement of this enter orize, and I assure them that I shall continue to pro vide them always with a genuine and superior article f Schiedam Schnapps. B. L. SIMPSON.
NEW YORK, March 10, 1856. mr22 d&wtje13 of Schiedam Schnapps.

Caution to Western Merchants ! WOLFE'S

Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps. This celebrated medicinal beverage is manufactured the factory of the undersigned, at Schiedam, Holand. He is the sole importer as well as the exclusive nanufacturer of the article; and no preparation bearing the name of "Schnapps," that is not procured ither from his establishment in New York, or from his gents in other cities, is genuine and reliable. It is made from barley of the finest quality, selected with great care from the products of the most celebra-ed grain-growing districts; is flavored with the essence of the aromatic Juniper Berry of Italy, and is rectified by a peculiar process, which expels from the spirit very acrid particle.

As a means of preventing and correcting the disa he stomach and bowels by a change of water-a visitaion to which travelers, new settlers, and all un accli-nated persons in the west, the south, and southwest are peculiarly liable-the Schiedam Aromatic Schnappe he bladder, dyspepsia, and general debility, it is re-commended most emphatically by the most distin-quished members of the medical profession. CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC. Since the introduction of my Schiedam Schnapps nto the United States, a number of liquor-mixers in New York, Boston, and Philadelphia, have commenced putting up mixed and poison gin, and calling it Schnapps. That name belongs expressly to my article

TO PERSONS WHO DRINK AT BARS AND HOTELS Numerous complaints are made of persons who keep ng for my SCHIEDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS. AND VERSICOLA, OFFICE ON THIRD STREET, Forthe cure of Scrofula, Dyspepsia, Chronic Rheu natism, and Blood Impurities generally.

MIDDLETOWN, JEFFERSON Co., Ky., Aug. 13, 1855. Dr. Vaughan-Dear Sir: In the summer of 1852 1 had a young black boy, about two years old, severely afflicted with an eruptive disease of some kind. His whole body, and more especially his head, arms, and legs, were one ass of running matter. I had lost two children about the same age, and of the same parents, with the same kind of cruptions, and I felt sure this one would also die; but, luckily, I was recommended to use your "Dr. Blackwell's Sarsaparilla and Versicola," which I am happy to inform you, from the use of some åveor six bottles, entirely cured him.

Respectfully yours, ALLEN MINOR.

LOUISVILLE, KY., March 31, 1855. Dr. VAUGHAN-Dear Sir: I have used "Dr. Black well Sarsaparilla and Versicola" for a chronic disease of the stomach and liver, with severe constipation of the bowels and tendency of the blood to the head. I take great pleasure in recommending it as a superior siterative and blood purifier. It acts as a gentle ca thartic, and is pleasant to the taste. Dr. B. VAUGHAN, No. 84 Third street, Louisville

A Human Life Saved! Dowagiac, Mich., March 11, 1858. J. A. RHODES, Esq.-Dear Sir: As I took your med ne to sell on consignment, "no cure no pay," I take pleasure in stating its effects as reported to me by three rothers who live in this place, and their testimony is a

office of Daily Louisville Demograt, and their testimony is a fair specimen of all I have received:

W. S. Conklin told me—"I had taken nine bottles of Christie's Ague Balsam, and continually run down while using it, until my lungs and liver were congested to that degree that blood discharged from my mouth and bowels, so that all thought it impossible for me to tive through another chill! The doctors, too, did all they could for me, but thought I must die. Nothing did me any good until I got Rhodes' Fever and Ague Cure, which at once relieved me of the distress and nausea at my stomach and pain in my head and bowels, and produced a permanent cure in a short time."

H. M. Conklin says: "I had been taking medicine of as good a doctor as we have in our county, and taken ny quantity of quinine and specifics without any sood result, from 25th August to 17th December. But seeing how nicely it operated on my brother, I got a bottle of Rhodes' Fever and Ague Cure, which effected a permanent cure by using two-thirds of a bottle."

S. M. Conklin was not here, but both the other brothers say his case was the same as H. M. "s. I sold the medicine to both the same day, and the cure was as specify.

from the same small quantity, and I might so specify Yours with respect, A. HUNTINGTON.
The above speaks for itself. Good proof as it is, it is of no better tenor than the vast number of like certificates I have already published, and the still greater amount that is continually pouring in to me. Onething more. Last year I had occasion to CAU-TION THE PUBLIC in these words:

"I notice one firm who have taken one of my general cir culars, substituted the name of their nostrum for my nedicine, and then, with brazen impudence, end their amphlet with the exclamation, Let the proprietor of any other medicine say as much if he dares," &c. Now I take pleasure in saying that the CAUTION re-ferred to the same "Dr. Christie's Ague Balsam" that is nentioned in the above certificate.

There are several other in tustrious people who are applying to their poisonous trash all that I publish bout my Fever and Ague Cure, or Antidote to Malaria, except the certificates of cures, and the cert ficate of the celebrated chemist, Dr. James R. Chilton, of New York, in favor of its perfectly harmless character, which is attached to every bottle. These will always serve to listinguish my medicine from inditations.

WASHINGTON, May 14.

SENATE. - Mr. Clayton said he had seen in the ON THIS EVENING, THURSDAY porning papers an extract purporting to be from a letter from the British minister at Washington, dated March 31st, 1856, in which Mr. Crampton says it will be within your Lordships recollection De that Mr. Clayton was informed by Sir Henry Bulwer before the treaty of 1859 was signed, that Ruatan was de jure and de facto part of the British Possessions, and Mr. Clayton has on various occasions since, in conversation with me, stated that he considered Ruatan as much of a British

Mr. Clayton branded this statement as utterly untrue in every part. The British minister must have labored under as strange a hallucination as ever entered the brain of any man to make such declaration. Nothing like it had ever escaped im in conversation with Mr. Crampton or any body else. Fortunately for him the fact did not rest merely upon the statements of Mr. Crampton and himself. He had a living witness. First he called attention to the letter written by Mr. crampton and read in the Senate on the 12th of January, 1854, in the course of one of Mr. Clayton's speeches, in which he attempted to prove that Rustan was not a dependence of the Service that Rustan was not a dependence of the Service. that Rustan was not a dependency of the British and was not exempted from the provisions of the treaty of 1850. He then had Mr. Crampton's testreaty of 1850. He then had Mr. Crampton's testreaty of 1850. timony on the subject, and read it to the Senate, and now read it again to contradict Mr. Crampton's statement, which was made known to him this morning for the first time, and of which he had not the most remote conception. In this let-ter Mr. Crampton said the dependencies of the British are in my opinion distinctly enumerated in the treaty of 1786. He had made this statement deliberately, and the irresistible con was that Ruatan was not included in these de-

Mr. Clayton said, while he was detained at his Int. Chayton said, while he was detained at his ledgings by sickness in February or March last, he was called upon by Mr. Crittenden, and while they were engaged in conversation on this subject, Mr. Crampton came in to invite Mr. Clayton o dine with him. Mr. Clayton was too sick to accept the invita tion, but took occasion to ask Mr. Crampton if he knew of that charge, &c.

Mr. Cass thought it very certain that Mr. Clayton, unless in some fit of insanity, could never have said to Crampton what was attributed to him.

Mr. Pratt inquired what evidence there was that this letter was authentic. He thought there must be some mistake. Mr. Clayton had no knowledge of its authenticity. When his attention was called to it in the morning he was much astonished and his first duty was to prove that the statement, no matter by whom made, was false. If Mr. Crampton had never made such a statement, he was not injured never made such a statement, he was not injured by these remarks, but if he did make it it was for Mr. Crampton to explain it. It had appeared in public prints, and until it was denied or disavowed, Mr. Clayton was bund to suppose it was a genuine document. He should, nowever, he very happy to be assured of the contrary.

Mr. Fish, in response to a question from Mr. Clayton, while he thought there was some mistake in the copy of the letter, he said in the copy of take in the copy of the letter, he said in the cours take in the copy of the letter, he said in the course of two interviews with Crampton, the latter stated to him that Clayton always denied that Ruatan was part of the British possession.

He (Clayton) had ever admitted that Ruatan was exempted from the asservation of the treaty, and that Crampton in the most unquestionable terms had acknowledged there was no truth in the report. Clayton had never made envised in the course.

report. Clayton had never made any such intima ion to him.

Mr. Crittendon corrobrated Mr. Clayton's state-

rect reverse of what he was represented as admit-ting. He was willing to put the mest charitable struction upon it, but it was an utter mistake. Mr. Cass said Britain being repeatedly driven rem one point of defence, had invariably taken refuge at another, as recent events showed. The Senate, after a debate, refused the reconsideration of the vote, by which, on Friday, was passed the Iowa land bill. Adjourned.
House.—Mr. Bennett, of New York, from the committee of public lands, reported a bill granting a million acres of land to Fiorida, to aid in the construction of three railroads, embracing 500 miles, and moved the previous question. Mr. Jone, of Tenue me to a pretty pass when bills of this character involving such large appropriations, cannot be in-quired into unless by the grace and special favor of the committee which report them. Mr. Bennett thought be was doing the House a saver by proposing to get rid of these bills as soon It was well known that if they were to be re-terred to the committe of the whole of the state linion, they could not be acted on this session. In reply to an inquiry, Mr. Bennett said the committe on public lands had reported similar olls for railroads in Michigan, Louisiana, Missis-sined Alabama. Wisconsin, requiring an extension

. Washington, May 14. Mr. Buchanan was serenaded last night; and, in answer to a call, made a brief speech to an immense crowd, returning thanks for his cordial re-ception from the citizens of Washington. He regarded the present condition of the slavery question as a finality, and repeated the opinions expressed in his Baltimore speech. He concluded with inviting citizens to call upon him. Considerable en-thu-iaem was manifested. He remains here about

The anti Fillmore portion of the delegates to the American convention were in session yesterday till midnight. Sixty delegates were present, Wilder S. Thurston presiding. A resolution was passed repudiating, on behalf of the American party of Massachusetts, the nomination of Fillmore and Donelson as inconsistent with the Springfield platform and the principles to which the American party stands pledged. Delegates were appointed to the National Convention at New York, to meet on the 12th of June. A State Central Committee was chosen.

Hotel for Lease. THE UNDERSIGNED HAV.

ing just completed the St. Charles Hotel, in the town of Portland, adjoining Louisville, offers for lease to a good and responsible tenant for a term of for lease to a good and responsible tenant for a term of years.

This Hotel is a large and commodious structure, constructed upon the most modern and improved plans, with every arrangement for the convenience, entertainment, and comfort of guests. It is situated on Commercial—the principal cross street of the place—within a brief walk of the wharf and the depot of the cars. The house, four stories high, embraces some sixty large rooms, which are light, well ventil ated and finished in fine style. No pains have been spared in erecting the building, neither as regards architectural effect, convenience, and provision for every necessary want for hotel keeping. Adjoining the house are beautiful grounds, handsomely laid out with shrubbery, and affording a pleasant rural factories. fabrics and a pleasant rural retreat. The advantages of a Hotel in Portland are too apparent to need mentioning. There is now no first class house of entertainment in that town, and the number of persons daily arriving there is enormous. Many of them. could they find accommodation, would stop in Portland for the transaction of business and other conveniences. Portland is well known as the landing place and port for all the New Orleans, St. Louis, henderson, and other Southern packets trading with Louis willo. ville.

Mammoth Cave, Kentucky. THE HOTEL AT THE CAVE, which is capable of accommodating 400 persons, is now undergoing a thorough repair, and being reflitted and farpished in a neat and comfortable style. Persons desirous of visiting the Cave during the approaching season will find the accommodations equal to those of the first-class hotels. The services of the old guides, Stephen, Mat, Nicholae, &c., have all been secured.

The Cave will be kept in connection with the celebrated stand, the "Bell Tavern," situated about 30 miles from Louisville, and about the same distance from Nashville, on the Louisville and Nashville road, which can be reached by a faily line o stages run by Carter & Thomas to "Bell's," 7 miles from the Cave, where conveyances will at all times be in readiness to convey visitors to the Cave.

The Cave is situated at a healthy and romantic spot on the banks of Green river, and has been explored in a direct route over 9 miles, and through the various affects to the Cave.

It would be impossible to describe the grandeur and beauty of the Cave. The proprietors feel justified in saying that it is not equaled as a grand representative of nature by any other curiosity in the world, "nd they are well satisfied that a visit to the same will well repay those who travel for pleasure or in sexpond of the wonderful.

From Judge Asher Graham,
(Formerly a member of the Bench of the Court of Appeals).

I have seen some of Dr. Price's patients. They appeared to have been very much diseased, almost beyond all hopes of recovery. They now seem to be perfectly relieved.

Bowling Green, Ky.

From Judge Wm. V. Loving, ieft side of his face and neck was greatly enlarged and swollen. Ail of the left side of his neck, breast, and right shoulder were a mass of filthy diseases and running sores. As he would work his arms, the air would escape from deep ulcers under his collar bones, causing filthy matter and blood to bubble out. The use of the probe had proved that some of these ulcers extended into the hollow of the body. Mr. Dickerson put himself under Dr. Price's treatment, who administered his Ohronic Specific, and, strangeto tell, a permanent cure was effected.

Bowling Green, Ky.

From Dr. D. R. Haggard, (President of the Board of Internal Improvement). Within my own knowledge, Dr. Price, who now resides n Louisville, has been signally successful in curing croftia. Some of the worst cases that have occurred a Kentucky have been cured by the use of his Chronespecific. When all hope had fied, he was applied to, and his treatment restored them to perfect health. three of these cases were cured within a few miles of ny residence.
